

Outside Scholarships

For students interested in scholarship opportunities outside of the University's financial aid, we recommend the following websites to help you get started in your search. Please note that many of these scholarships are awarded in the beginning of the calendar year for the following fall, so it is best to start your search early.

All legitimate scholarship searches should be free of charge.

UNDERGRADUATE FINANCIAL AID

GUIDELINES AND DEADLINES

UNIVERSITY OF HARTFORD

This guide provides you with a brief overview of various types and sources of financial aid.

» BASIC TYPES OF STUDENT AID

THERE ARE THREE TYPES OF STUDENT FINANCIAL AID:

Gift aid: These awards are usually in the form of grants or scholarships, which do not have to be repaid.

Loan aid: This is borrowed money, which must be repaid with interest. Most student loans do not require payment while the student is enrolled at least half time, though interest may accrue during that time.

Work aid: The University participates in the Federal Work-Study program. Employment opportunities are available both on and off campus. These funds are earned in a bi-weekly paycheck.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Outside scholarships: Outside scholarships can be found through many sources. Visit our website to begin your search.

Payment plan: A payment plan allows you to pay your bill in manageable installments. Visit tuitionpaymentplan.com/Hartford for more information.

PLUS: Parents may choose to borrow a Federal Direct PLUS loan to pay for their child's education. Parents can access the PLUS application at www.studentloans.gov. Students must file the FAFSA first.

Alternative loans: These loans are available to students and generally require a credit-worthy cosigner. Terms and qualifying criteria vary by loan product.

» Accepting your financial aid

Incoming students will receive their Financial Aid Award Package via postal mail. After deposit, they will be able to accept their award online via the University of Hartford's Self-Service Center.

Returning students will receive their Financial Aid Award Package via the University of Hartford's Self-Service Center. Notification of award will be emailed to their University of Hartford email account.

Once enrolled, all communication from the Office of Student Financial Assistance will be sent to the student's University of Hartford email account.

KEY FACTS

- 1 You must apply for aid each year. Complete the FAFSA annually as soon as it is available. If your taxes are not completed, estimate your income using prior year taxes or pay stubs.
- 2 Check your University email frequently for notifications from Student Financial Assistance and respond promptly to requests for documents.
- 3 If you wish for us to be able to discuss your aid with a parent or other person, add them as FERPA (Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act) contacts via the Self-Service Center.
- 4 To keep your aid, ensure that you are meeting the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards specified by your school or college. SAP requirements may be found in the Academic regulations section of the University of Hartford's Undergraduate Bulletin. hartford.edu/bulletin
