Directions for Application to Graduate Study
The Center for Graduate and Adult Academic Services and the Admissions Committee of the Department of Psychology welcome your application for graduate study at the University of Hartford. In order to be considered for graduate study in the Department of Psychology, you must complete the items listed in the CHECKLIST below. The Admissions Committee will review applications in the order in which they are received.

☐ Complete the general and supplementary application forms and submit them with the nonrefundable application fee—$45 for domestic applicants, $60 for international applicants—payable to the University of Hartford, to the address printed on the application form.

☐ Write a letter of intent using the enclosed form, describing your professional and career goals and how you expect graduate study to help you accomplish them.

☐ Submit official transcripts from all accredited colleges or universities you attended. Our program requires applicants to have completed a bachelor's degree.

☐ Submit three recommendations from academic sources/supervisory personnel with whom you have worked, using the forms provided.

☐ Examination requirements.

Applicants to the Master’s Programs in Clinical Practices in Psychology, General Experimental Psychology, and School Psychology must take the Graduate Record Examination (GRE): the General and the Subject Test in Psychology. Information regarding this test may be obtained from the Center for Graduate and Adult Academic Services. Official scores may be obtained from the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, NJ 08541-6000, or www.gre.org

Applicants to the Master’s Program in Organizational Behavior must take either the Graduate Record Examination (Verbal and Quantitative portions) or the Graduate Management Aptitude Test (GMAT).

Information regarding those tests may be obtained from the Center for Graduate and Adult Academic Services.

The ETS code number for the GRE University of Hartford is 3436.

The GMAT code number for the University of Hartford is XBBNR25.

Complete your application form online at: http://admission.hartford.edu/graduate or complete the attached application form.

Statement of Nondiscriminatory Policies

Consistent with the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, the University does not discriminate on the basis of gender in the conduct or operation of its educational programs or activities (including employment therein and admission thereto). The University admits students without regard to race, gender, physical ability, creed, color, age, sexual orientation, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the University. It complies with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and does not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, physical ability, creed, color, age, sexual orientation, national and ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other University-administered programs. The University of Hartford hereby provides notice to its students, employees, applicants, and others that it supports the language and intent of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (and regulations issued pursuant thereto), which prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in its educational programs and activities, including admission to and access to the University. The Dean of Students (Gengras Student Union, telephone (860) 768-4260) is the individual designated to coordinate efforts by the University to comply with and carry out requirements under Title IX and Section 504.

Inquiries concerning the application of Title IX, Section 504, and Title VI may be referred to the Regional Director, Office of Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education, Boston, Massachusetts 02109.
